

Cornell University
ILR School
Employment and Disability Institute

ediONLINE is the Employment and Disability Institute's vehicle for providing high quality online training to managers, practitioners, advocates and policy makers in the disability field in order to improve and enhance effectiveness in supporting employment outcomes and greater economic self-sufficiency for people with disabilities.

These courses bridge the gap between policy and practice by providing practical applications, hands-on learning, leading-edge skills, and knowledge that you can immediately apply to your work.
