Creating workplaces inclusive of people with disabilities is a business imperative. Inclusion results when good processes and practices are normalized into the workplace. Normalizing inclusion requires numerous tools, techniques, and technologies. Many of these techniques have been honed over the years by employers, service providers, and individuals with disabilities.

At this event, you will:

- » Know Techniques, Tools, and Technologies for Recruiting and Retaining Talent with Disabilities
- » Understand the value proposition for workforce inclusion
- » Learn 5 techniques for recruiting and onboarding talent
- » Learn 5 tools for employing and retaining talent
- » Download and use free, accommodation case management technology
